

Miss Martha Bayard Scores Sensational Victory Over Miss Marie Wagner in Pelham Tennis

Former Champion Is Beaten By Jersey Girl in 3-Set Match

Short Hills Player Wins by Love Set Triumph in Deciding Encounter; Misses Wagner and Cassel Defeat Mrs. Briggs and Miss Gilleaudeau

By Fred Hawthorne

Following her splendid victory of Friday, when she defeated Miss Leslie Bancroft, of Boston, in the semi-final round, Miss Martha Bayard, of Short Hills, N. J., gained another sensational triumph yesterday by conquering Miss Marie Wagner, former national indoor champion, by a score of 6-4, 3-6, 6-0, in the final round match of the Pelham Country Club's annual invitation lawn tennis tournament.

Coming so soon after her triumph over Miss Bancroft, the No. 3 ranking woman player of the country, Miss Bayard's decisive defeat of the veteran former indoor champion yesterday clinched the New Jersey girl's claim to be classed among the leaders of the game in the East. Those who had been inclined to minimize the true importance of Miss Bayard's semi-final victory on Friday were forced to admit that yesterday's showing, that this slender girl, who only graduated from the junior ranks last season, is now entitled to full recognition.

Miss Wagner and Miss Clara Cassel, who took the women's doubles after a severe-struggling struggle against Mrs. Benjamin F. Briggs and Miss Helen Gilleaudeau, the sets going at 11-9, 6-4, after more than two hours and a half of play.

Between these teams that it was impossible to foretell the final result until the last point had been won and lost. The ability to hold control at critical stages enabled Miss Wagner and Miss Cassel to pull out the hard-fought match.

The chief burden of play in this match fell upon Miss Gilleaudeau and Miss Cassel, both of whom defended the back-court position tenaciously, with Miss Wagner and Miss Briggs dominating the net position. To the surprise of the gallery, Miss Gilleaudeau contributed more than her usual number of errors during the two sets, in spite of her well-earned record for steadiness.

Match Played in Stifling Heat. The singles match, regarded as the feature of the day, was staged at 11 o'clock in the morning, when the heat was stifling. The sun broke through the clouds a few minutes before the players stepped out on the court and even those of the gallery very soon sought the shelter of the trees, which were favored spots under the trees, for a refreshing breeze that never came.

The arrangements, under the direction of Fred Ingalls, chairman of the permanent tournament, with Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Edna Welby, were flawless. John, the faithful keeper of the courts, had the playing surface in splendid condition, and the visitors from foreign parts, including the players, were met at the station to the club, and vice-versa, by a very efficient and charming "transportation committee," personally conducted by the Misses Cassel and Mrs. Robert Leonard.

Miss Bayard's husband officiating as umpire in the match, which was won by Miss Wagner holding the service. She dropped the first game, however, as the result of errors, and then Miss Bayard made it 2-0 by winning her own delivery.

Miss Wagner secured a dazzling placement across the side lines. The former indoor champion was evidently keyed up to win in the shortest time possible, and it looked as though she had started a winning streak.

Miss Bayard's Accurate Placing. But Miss Bayard, finding herself seriously threatened by her more experienced rival, settled down splendidly and won the next three games, for a set of 6-2. While her shots were marked by accuracy and finishing, the set was checked when Miss Bayard was marvellously accurate in her placing and nothing was safe from the sweep of her racquet unless the opponent "put the ball away," for the New Jersey girl covered her court remarkably.

Miss Wagner made another spirited effort to come back, winning the seventh and eighth games after a strenuous struggle, but her hopes of winning the set were checked when Miss Bayard took the tenth game, for the set at 6-4, and a moral advantage that was his in the match.

Miss Wagner again served at the start of the second, and won her game as her opponent drove into the net twice and out of court once. When Miss Bayard took the second game, she broke through to win the third, it looked as though she had won the set, for she led at 4-15 in the fourth. On the next point, however, she made a costly error on an easy volley that went out of court, and the Wagner took the fourth game, for the set at 6-4, and a moral advantage that was his in the match.

Miss Wagner Outplayed. Following the ten-minute rest period after the third set Miss Bayard went back with renewed determination, and after winning her service in the opener, took the second by breaking through Miss Wagner's delivery, after "deuce" had been called six times for the shot, apparently conceding defeat that was fast approaching.

Without a hitch in her machine-like accuracy Miss Bayard ran through the last four games, giving her set at 6-0, and a splendidly experienced victory over a vastly more experienced opponent.

The final mixed doubles match will be played this afternoon.

Umpire Wilson Released. CHICAGO, June 10.—President Johnson of the American Tennis Association to reduce his staff of umpires by releasing Frank Wilson. This incident, which "Big Ed" Walsh, former pitcher with the Chicago Americans, will be retained. This is Walsh's first year as an umpire in the American League.

Point by Point Score

First Set	Point Score	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	6 4
Miss Wagner	4 3 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	3 6

Stroke Analysis	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	10 10 10 0 1
Miss Wagner	10 10 10 0 1

Second Set	Point Score	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	2 4 3 2 4 1 1 1 2 3 4	6 4
Miss Wagner	4 1 3 5 2 4 4 4 4 4 4	3 6

Stroke Analysis	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	10 10 10 0 1
Miss Wagner	10 10 10 0 1

Third Set	Point Score	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	6 0
Miss Wagner	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 6

Stroke Analysis	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	10 10 10 0 1
Miss Wagner	10 10 10 0 1

RECAPITULATION	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	10 10 10 0 1
Miss Wagner	10 10 10 0 1

TOTALS	Pls. Gs.
Miss Bayard	10 10 10 0 1
Miss Wagner	10 10 10 0 1

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

MISS BAYARD—2 sets, 10 games, 95 points, 80 errors, 64 errors.	MISS WAGNER—2 sets, 10 games, 80 points, 75 errors, 64 errors.
Umpire—Benjamin F. Briggs.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.

Mrs. Mallory's backhand and forehand strokes in today's play were magnificently judged. She commanded the attack throughout the match, except in its early stages, when the English woman took two games after the score was 1-11. Mrs. Mallory then took five in sequence for the set.

The American champion led in the second set at 4-0. Mrs. Beamish made it 4-1, and the eighth game went to deuce nine times before the American won it. The ninth, however, was a love game.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

The match was a popular winner, with a large following, which is becoming increasingly interested in her trip here in the hope of meeting Miss Lenglen.

Mrs. Mallory and her partner, Miss Edith Sigourney, of Boston, were defeated in the final round of the women's doubles. Mrs. Edgington and Miss Mamsey, of England, won from the American pair.

The match developed into a prolonged struggle on the base line and in driving. The chief credit for the victory belongs to Mrs. Edgington, whose safety shots were unbreakable. Miss Mamsey did good work at volleys.

Mrs. Mallory Wins From Mrs. Beamish In Straight Sets

LONDON, June 10 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American woman tennis champion, won the North London tennis championship in the women's singles this afternoon, defeating Mrs. Beamish, the English star, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Mallory displayed the best playing form she has shown in England since her arrival.

Mrs. Mallory, who thus obtains satisfaction for her defeat by Mrs. Beamish shortly after landing, has through this victory started some revising of opinion as to her chances against Miss Suzanne Lenglen in the coming Wimbledon championship, should the two meet there.